Our Mission

The Helping Center of Marble Falls provides nourishment and limited financial support to our neighbors in need in a dignified and hope-filled setting. As a unified community of Christians, we also offer opportunities for education, fellowship, and referrals providing a path to self-sufficiency.

Upcoming Events

March 17

Ready to outsmart your grocery bill? Join Texas A&M AgriLife Extension for Smart Shopping While Spending Less.

Learn how to spot the real deals, plan ahead like a pro, and make your food budget stretch further—without sacrificing healthy choices. Same groceries, smarter moves, fewer “how did I spend that much?!” moments.

~ CRC Meeting Room - 10:00 AM

FREE H-E-B gift card for everyone who attends.

March 19th

Join Cadence Bank and meet up with Nique for an engaging, easy-to-follow class designed to help you build skills and confidence for everyday life.

Come curious, leave smarter—and yes, you’ll probably learn something you’ll use that same day.

Spring Forward — March 8, 2026

Don’t forget to set your clocks ahead one hour on Sunday, March 8! Daylight Saving Time begins, which means a little less sleep — but a little more sunshine. Longer days, blooming flowers, and fresh beginnings are right around the corner. Spring is upon us, and we’re grateful for this season of renewal and growth in our community.

Here’s to brighter evenings and hopeful days ahead!

Easter Blessings from All of Us
He is risen — and hope is alive.
Easter reminds us that light always breaks through the darkness, love wins, and new beginnings are possible. As we celebrate this season of renewal, may your heart be filled with peace, your table surrounded by joy, and your days rooted in hope.

Because of His resurrection, we get to live resurrection lives — full of grace, gratitude, and fresh starts. 🌸
Happy Easter!
